

Botanical name:

Pyrus calleryana 'Chanticleer'

Common name:

Chanticleer Callery Pear

Origin:

Cultivar

Typical height:

12-15 metres

Typical width:

6-8 metres

Growth rate:

Fast

Typical form:

Narrowly conical, upright, medium sized deciduous tree with dense foliage

Characteristics:

Dark green, glossy foliage, turns attractive reddish-purple colour in autumn. White flowers in spring.

Site requirements:

Shallow rooted tree that adapts to a range of soil types

Tolerances:

Good urban tolerances. Tolerant of protracted dry periods once established. High pollution and frost tolerance. Moderate to low water logging tolerance.

Notes:

Low maintenance. Maintains strong central leader

